Gender Pay Report April 2022

Overview

-  In our sixth year of reporting we are pleased to note that our mean Gender Pay Gap continues to show a small negative gap at (1.2%) from (5.2%) in 2021 , while our median Gender Pay Gap has decreased slightly from just over 7.3% in 2021 to 6% in 2022, compared to a national figure of 5.45% and 9.71%.
-  Although our workforce is relatively balanced between men and women (46% to 54%) nearly three quarters of our senior management team are women. While we are proud of our gender balance we recognise there is more work to be done, particularly in relation to the number of women in the lower middle and upper middle quartiles and we are therefore very pleased that since our last gender pay report we have promoted 7 women into more senior (and therefore higher paid) staff positions, as well as having 15 women join the company in management and senior specialist roles.
-  We are continuing to create as many opportunities as we can for talented individuals, whatever their background, to join Lime Pictures and to develop their careers with us. With this in mind we provided 6 internships, 5 apprenticeships and a wide range of placements and other work experience in the last 12 months
-  It is also important to note that the Gender Pay Gap is different from 'Equal Pay'. The Gender Pay Gap is the difference between the hourly rate of pay of men and women, expressed as a percentage of the hourly pay rate of the men. Equal pay is the difference in pay between men and women who carry out the same or comparable jobs. At Lime Pictures women and men in comparable roles are paid equally.

Very few people (4%) working for Lime are entitled to a contractual bonus: those that are entitled are all employees. We have set out below the percentage of men and women who received a bonus in 2021 and 2022, both as a proportion of overall male and female employees and then as a percentage of overall male and females in the workforce. Given the size of the pool, general percentages should be treated with caution.
